WHITE CITY/EMERALD PARK

Darlene Gosling recently built her new home with Emerald Park Homes. According to Gosling, it was important to work with a homebuilder who offered the flexibility to customize one of their plans to suit her budget and lifestyle.

It is this type of customer service that sets Emerald Park Homes apart from other builders. Whether it was location or design options, Gosling relied on their experience and expertise to help her make choices for her new home in the country. It was this freedom to choose key components of her home that made building with Emerald Park Homes a positive experience for Gosling.

"The location had the biggest impact on me," said Gosling. "I drove by this lot that had a few trees and thought this is going to be [the location of] my new home. I soon realized that it had to be a country setting (privacy, sunsets, trees, beautiful landscaping) as you can take the girl out of the country, but not the country out of the girl. Living in the country so close to the city has a serenity about it that families would enjoy. My lot has many trees, a water feature, wild prairie grass, vivid sunrises and sunsets, living skies and the sound of birds and frogs."

Now is the time to build new

"My new home is a reflection of who I am," said Gosling. "I wanted it to be unique and resemble myself. Both Garry and Lorena [Sawchyn] provided solutions that helped make my home a reality. If I had to do it again, Emerald Park Homes would be my first choice."

Build it right the first time

When it comes to choosing your homebuilder, be sure to do your homework by checking references, asking the right questions and comparing the costs, dollar to dollar. Emerald

Park Homes will ensure that high quality standards in building material and construction are met, while details of design and decorating are left to their customers.

"From the quality of workmanship and conversations [regarding] both custom home building and everyday conversation, it was a combination that I knew I could trust and depend on when the decision to build was finally made," said Gosling.

It is these personal touches and the high quality of work that allow homeowners to enjoy their new home building experience to the fullest.

For years to come, Gosling will feel great every time she pulls into her driveway.
